

Tim Brown, Physiotherapist

Tim moved to the Gold Coast in 1997 and started partnership in Mermaid Beach Sports Medicine and Physiotherapy Clinic, a single person clinic at that point. Tim continued his involvement with swimming and became Physiotherapist for Australian Swimming Team in 2001. Over the next 7 years Tim travelled with the Team to the Commonwealth Games, World Championships and the Olympics.

During this time Tim was also Consultant Physiotherapist to the Queensland Academy of Sport for Triathlon and Kayak. He has also been involved with surfing since the late 90's attending over 20 International Events, and is now consultant to the Hurley High Performance Centre at Casuarina, NSW.

Summit Physiotherapy and Shoulder Centre began in March 2016 and is the culmination of Tims' journey as a physiotherapist and his desire to deliver the highest level of service to the community
